

Intern Job Description

In short, the primary role of an Intern is to spend the summer developing connections with students. This is accomplished through participation, and leading various events during the summer. The Refuge Student Ministry spends just about every other week of the summer either out of town on a trip, or running a full week-long activity for students. "Normal Weeks" are weeks that we are not doing one of those things. On these weeks generally have at least three gathering times. These have taken different shapes depending on who our interns have been, and what they are interested in. For example, we meet on Sunday morning for class, Tuesday for a service project, Wednesday night for a night of worship.

General Responsibilities during "normal weeks"

- Preparation and execution of weekly gatherings
- Reaching out to connect with students
- Communication for events
- Many other little odds and ends

Office Hours

Though these obviously vary from week to week, during "normal weeks" we are generally in the office Monday thru Thursday. Friday and Saturday are generally yours to do what you like. I highly recommend taking at least one of those days to rest.
