

PHILO ROAD CHURCH OF CHRIST

Youth Ministry Internship // 2023

CHURCH DESCRIPTION

The Philo Road church is in Urbana, Illinois, just three minutes from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign (UIUC). We consider ourselves to be a family that loves God, loves others, and tries to live like Jesus day in and out. We have a small group of students that we love, and that we would love for you to invest time in while developing your own hands-on ministry skills. To find out more about us, visit our website at livechrist.church.

EXPECTATIONS

- Have a relationship with Jesus.
- Interest in working with a broad range of ages.
- Be involved in church-wide activities that are not necessarily youth-related.
- Submit to a background check and share social media accounts.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Communicate clearly with parents and students.
- Plan activities to do with students and coordinate with the youth deacon, Allen Cornett.
- Participate in Illinois Christian Camp, Summer Youth Series', and Exhibit Evangelism, depending on the agreed upon dates of the internship.
- Maintain regular, but flexible hours at the church building.
- Teach the Sunday morning teen class.

DEVELOPMENT

- Meet weekly with the preaching minister.
- Meet expectations your college or university has of you over the summer, if any.

COMPENSATION

10 Weeks, $300 per week ($3000 total). Start and end dates negotiable. Housing provided. Transportation provided if needed.

This position is open to both male and female applicants.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Send your resume to Jon Smith at jonglen25@gmail.com You will be contacted within one week regarding how we will proceed. We hope to have an agreement by the end of 2022.

With any questions, you can email Jon, send him a text, or call him at (662) 321-2532.